Biography

Deepali Brahmbhatt is rated Northern California, Rising Stars and Top Women Attorneys, Super Lawyers, 2016-2018.

Ms. Brahmbhatt is an Intellectual Property and Privacy Attorney. Ms. Brahmbhatt's practice focuses on all aspects of Intellectual Property with 360 degrees coverage including disputes, litigation, prosecution, sale and licensing. For privacy matters, Ms. Brahmbhatt helps clients on compliance, breach incidents and litigations including, for example, those related to HIPAA, GLBA, GDPR and CCPA. She has also helped clients with strategies involving open-source and IP protection related to standards, including, for example, blockchain and digital currency technologies.

Ms. Brahmbhatt has handled all aspects of litigation in number intellectual property litigation matters at federal district courts and ITC including managing day-to-day docket, depositions, expert discovery, hearings including Markman, summary judgment and trial. She prepares and prosecutes patents and trademarks with an eye towards potential assertions and licensing revenues. She has worked on post-grant proceedings including inter partes review and ex parte reexaminations from both offensive and defensive sides. She has also worked on due diligence investigations for mergers & acquisitions, infringement and validity analyses.

Prior to joining Devlin Law Firm, Ms. Brahmbhatt worked at biglaw firms of Weil, Gotshal & Manges, LLP and Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton LLP. Ms. Brahmbhatt is a registered patent attorney before the U.S. Patent and Trademark office. Prior to becoming a patent attorney, she worked in research and development at Cisco Systems, Inc. and is an inventor on five issued U.S. patents in the fields of networking, wireless and security. Ms. Brahmbhatt's networking and security engineering background helps her work efficiently with client's IT Professionals on Privacy matters.
