Biography

Gina Hong is a dedicated Associate Attorney at Devlin Law Firm, bringing a wealth of experience in complex commercial and intellectual property litigation. She has a proven track record of successfully navigating legal matters related to trade secrets, breach of fiduciary duty, and breach of contract in business law.

Gina has managed over 10 trademark and copyright applications, providing strategic counsel to ensure compliance with intellectual property regulations. She excels in legal writing and analysis, having drafted over 25 motions, pleadings, and discovery documents. Her experience includes preparing and reviewing contracts for business acquisitions, employment, and real estate transactions.

Gina graduated cum laude with a B.S. in Biotechnology from the University of Houston and earned her Juris Doctor from South Texas College of Law Houston. She is admitted to the State Bar of Texas and the U.S. District Court for the Southern District of Texas.

Gina's contributions to the legal community include publishing an article in the HAPL Newsletter and participating in clinics where she assisted clients with trademark and patent applications. Her commitment to legal excellence and client advocacy makes her a valuable asset to the Devlin Law Firm team.
