Biography

Timothy Devlin is the Managing Partner of Devlin Law Firm LLC. He was previously a Principal at Fish & Richardson PC, one of the largest technology litigation firms in the United States, where he served as a co-chair of their IP Risk Management Group.

Mr. Devlin is widely recognized as one of the premier technology litigators in the country. He has acted as lead counsel in over 200 patent infringement cases, multiple contract and business tort matters, and class action technology cases. Mr. Devlin is frequently listed in publications including Chambers USA, Best Lawyers USA, and the Legal 500, and has been identified among Intellectual Asset Management's "Top-250" patent litigators worldwide every year since the inception of the list in 2011. He is a fellow in the Litigation Counsel of America, a trial lawyer honorary society whose membership is limited to less than one half of one percent of American lawyers.

Mr. Devlin's practice is focused on representing a variety of clients—from individual inventors to multi-national corporations—in complex technology litigation. He has wide ranging experience representing both plaintiffs and defendants, covering virtually all areas of technology, including such diverse areas as network and cellular communications, consumer electronics, semiconductor manufacturing and wafer processing, financial systems and check imaging, medical devices, chemical processes and products, network security, automotive and mechanical components, and Internet protocols.
